Madan Lal Dhingra

Published On: 18-08-2022

August 17th marked the Death Anniversary of Freedom Fighter Madan Lal Dhingra

He was influenced by Shyamji Krishna Verma and VD Savarkar

He found out that William Hutt Curzon Wylie was the Head of secret police because of whom, the freedom fighters in London were targeted.

Dhingra shot British army officer Sir William Hutt Curzon Wylie in UK in July 1909.

He is the first Indian to kill a British officer in England

Following a brief trial, he was hanged to death on August 17, 1909.

Dhingra was disowned for his political activities by his father Gitta Mall, who was the Chief Medical Officer in Amritsar, who went so far as to publish his decision in newspaper advertisements

He was a part of India House and The Abhinav Bharat Society in London
