Waqf Board

Published On: 05-08-2024

Why in news?

The center has proposed a bill that seeks to make women Waqf board members.

About :

The Waqf Board is a significant institution in India that manages waqf properties, which are assets dedicated for charitable or religious purposes under Islamic law.

Definition

Waqf: A waqf is an endowment made by a Muslim for religious, educational, or charitable purposes. It involves dedicating property or assets to these causes.

Purpose of Waqf Board: To manage and oversee the administration of waqf properties and ensure their proper utilization for the intended purposes.

Legal Framework

Waqf Act, 1995: The primary legislation governing the management and administration of waqf properties in India.

Amendments: The Act has been amended several times to improve its efficacy. The most recent amendment is the Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2013.

Waqf Rules: Rules under the Act provide details about the functioning and management of waqf properties.

Structure

Central Waqf Council: Central Waqf Council is a statutory body under the administrative control of the Ministry of Minority Affairs set up in 1964 as per the provision given in the Waqf Act, 1954.

It is an advisory body to the Central Government on matters concerning the working of the Waqf Boards and the due administration of Auqaf.

Auqaf (also spelled awqaf,) is an Arabic word meaning assets.

The Council consists of Chairperson, who is the Union Minister In charge of Waqf, such other members, not exceeding 20 in number, as may be appointed by the Government of India.

Each state has a Waqf Board headed by a chairperson,
